I lost my wedding ring once. For two days I was frantic, practically turning my whole house upside down. The loss was devastating—the ring symbolized so much and obviously couldn’t be replaced. I couldn’t do much else during those days but worry—I had trouble working, sleeping, and focusing. When I found the ring safely tucked amid some blankets that had fallen off the bed, my joy was nearly indescribable. Palpable relief filled me, and my world was back on track.

That experience gives me insight into “the joy in heaven” Jesus describes in today’s gospel at the repentance of a sinner. Sin causes a rift in our relationship with God—it’s a profound loss, like that of a shepherd losing a sheep or a woman losing a coin or a careless woman losing her wedding ring.

Jesus tells us that God’s joy at our repentance is even more profound—it’s worthy of a grand party and celebration. Take my joy at finding my ring and multiply it a hundredfold or more—that’s the rejoicing in heaven when a sinner comes home.

Knowing that’s how God feels about our repentance should bring us relief and peace—and it should also move us to extend mercy to those who have wronged us. Broken relationships are losses—we may try to pretend they don’t affect us, but deep down they can still eat away at us, slowly destroying our sense of peace and well-being. We can continue nurturing grudges and anger, or we can grab on to the palpable joy that comes with mercy and healing.

Are you missing out on some much-needed joy? Forgive someone, and then rejoice.

Eternal Rest Grant Unto Her, O Lord

Father of mercies and God of all consolation,
you pursue us with untiring love and dispel the shadow of death
with the bright dawn of life.
We pray for Marie,
in baptism you called her to eternal life
to raise you forever.
May you bring her to everlasting peace and rest.
(Prayers of Those Who Mourn, LTP)

We regret to inform you of the recent death of Queen of Angels’ parishioner Marie Cheatham. Many may recall Marie’s 100th birthday celebrations in April held here at Queen of Angels. Marie joined Queen of Angels Church in 2004 after moving to Alpine to live with her daughter, later her granddaughter Ginger Stacey, her husband Richard and their three children and in the last few months with her son Robert Lein. Marie was a familiar face at the 10:30 AM Mass and was an active member of the Bunco group. She was preceded in death by her husband Roy Lein in 1956, and later by her second husband, Robert Cheatham in 1995.

A funeral Mass for Marie Cheatham will be offered at 10:00 AM, Saturday, September 21 at Queen of Angels Church. A private inurnment at Holy Cross Cemetery will follow at a later date. Marie is survived by her children Bob (Judith) and Ginny (Sandy), five grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren.

Our sympathy and prayers go to all who mourn the loss of Marie Cheatham at this time. Please keep Marie, Bob, Ginny and their family and friends in your prayers.

Picnic Prizes Needed

We are looking for new items for raffle and bingo prizes. Gift cards make great prizes.
If you have any donations, (like tickets to the zoo or movies, or to the carwash, gift baskets or even a brand new car),
please drop them off at the office.
Thanks to so many people’s generosity,
we had some wonderful prizes last year.
No white elephants or used items please!

Marian Reflection

Holy Mary, Mother of God,
“Mother of God” originated in Greek as Theotokos which means
"the one who gives birth to the one who is God".
(Jaroslav Pelikan)

This doesn’t imply Mary giving birth to the eternal God. Theotokos refers to Jesus’ Incarnation, when the 2nd Person of the Trinity took on human nature through the cooperation of Mary.

This Marian title is really a Christological statement, affirming the second person of the Trinity, who was born into history as fully human, is really ‘God with us’.
(U Dayton)

Mater Dei, Latin for Mother of God is a parish in Chula Vista.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Follow Jesus Christ who is the source of freedom and light. Be open to the Lord so that He may lighten all your ways.

Pope John Paul II

Does the end of summer bring you new challenges, with work, with school or with family? As people around you settle into new routines are you feeling more restless? Maybe a bit burdened by what you or your family faces each day? At the same time are you willing to try something new? Do thoughts of wanting to belong to the Church or joining your family in going to Holy Communion or raising your children with values which stand the test of time, keep reoccurring?

Maybe this Fall is the time to explore what it means to join the Catholic Church (or complete your sacraments if you were baptized Catholic and never made your First Eucharist or were confirmed.) When we are open to the Lord, our load is lightened. Come join others and learn what it means to become Catholic or to receive First Communion and/or Confirmation through the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) process. Our next meeting is Wednesday, September 18, at 7:00 PM in the parish hall. Your waiting may be over! Call Rita at 445.2145 for more details. If your older child needs to be baptized or receive his or her First Eucharist, call Rita for more information.

Been Away From the Church for a While? Adults who have been away from the Church for a while are invited to check the website: www.CatholicsComeHome.com. Want to learn more about the Church? You may also listen to Catholic radio at 1000 AM (www.ihradio.com) or come join us at the RCIA lessons at 7:00 PM each Wednesday evening in the hall. Call Rita at 445-2145 for more information.

Holy Land Items for Sale

this Sunday, September 15, in front of church, after all the Masses. The items are made from olive wood from throughout the Holy Land. Come support this worthy endeavor through the purchase of beautiful handcrafted goods from Bethlehem.

Built of Living Stones Don’t forget to pick up your BOLS Statements this weekend, September 14-15, at the church entrance. Next weekend, September 21-22 will be the monthly BOLS Collection. If you haven’t made a pledge, there are envelopes for your use at the church entrance.

Eucharistic Adoration Friday, September 20, there will be Eucharistic adoration following the 8 AM Mass, with an hour of prayer devoted to pro-life efforts. Join others for time with the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament during this holy hour.

Padre Pio Feast Day Come join the celebration for Padre Pio’s Feast Day on Sunday, September 22, at Santa Sophia Parish. The festivities begin with a documentary video on Padre Pio at 2 PM followed by a holy hour with Father Louis Sclafani from 3:45-4:45 PM. Bishop Cirilo Flores will celebrate Mass at 5:15 PM. For complete information please call 619.697.5958.

Catholic Answers Please join us for the Catholic Answers’ National Apologetics Conference at the Courtyard Marriott, Liberty Station, on Friday and Saturday, September 27-28. The conference, Catholic Answers to America’s Crisis, will feature Bishop James Conley of Lincoln, Nebraska as keynote speaker. Please visit CatholicAnswersConference.com to learn more about the event. Contact Marisa Shepard at 619.387.7200 or email mshepard@catholic.com to register.

Diocesan Office for Vocations is presenting a Vocation Awareness Retreat for Men and Women Ages 15-35 on Saturday, September 28, from 9 AM to 5 PM. The cost is $5 for lunch. Bring a bible and a notebook. The retreat will be held at the pastoral Center, 3888 Paducah Drive in San Diego. For more information please contact Sr. Aurora Lopez-Ornelas, alopez-ornelas@diocese-sdiego.org or 858.490.8346 or Rev. Pedro Rivera, at privera@diocese-sdiego.org, 619.291.7446.

Many people in our parish are ill and some could use a little extra help with meals. If you are interested in helping out a parish family with a meal once a month, please sign up on the sheet at the entrance of the church. Thank you.

The popular Taste of Mexico is BACK with a new menu!

Come join us today, September 15, as we gather in the parish hall immediately following the 10:30 AM Mass.

We will be serving Baja Style fish tacos, rice and beans, all for just $5!

Ala carte fish tacos for $2 each. Tickets can be bought before Mass at the Church entrance and you may also purchase “to go” plates!

Come one and all for this wonderful fundraiser to help those in need in our parish.
