ANNOUNCEMENTS

Faith Formation Religious Education will begin in October. Application forms for your child/children are available at the entrance to the church, the parish office and online. For your convenience, the online form can be printed from the website. Any questions or for more information contact Father David at 619.445.2145.

Faith Formation Volunteers Queen of Angels is still actively seeking volunteers to assist and aide teachers. If this opportunity is shouting or whispering your name please contact the office at 619.445.2145.

Adult Faith Formation If you or someone you know have not completed your Sacraments even though you are an adult, or if you are not Catholic and are wondering what, exactly, the Catholic Church is and what she believes, Adult Confirmation and RCIA classes will begin in October. More information to follow.

Please take Note Due to the Priestly Convocation taking place September 21-24, Father David WILL NOT be in the office and there will be no morning Masses. In the event of an emergency and you need to contact Fr. David, please call the office during normal business hours. If after business hours please leave a message and it will be answered promptly. Please pray for all the priests of the Diocese of San Diego who will be assembling with Bishop McElroy for their annual Priestly Convocation. May the Lord guide them and watch over them during this very important gathering for our diocese.

Spam Messages Recently at the parish office we have been experiencing an increase in spam messages mimicking staff email. We would like to remind everyone that no one at the parish office will ever request personal or financial information from you via email, especially on an individual basis.

Andrew Tompkin Memorial College Scholarship Award The Knights of Columbus are still taking scholarship applications from any practicing Catholic and member of Queen of Angels Parish. GOSPEL MEDITATION

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

There is something about being first. Whether it be first in line, first to be picked for the team, or the first one to finish their work, great satisfaction is achieved. Our egos love being first. It somehow sets us apart from everyone else, gives us a sense of pride and positions us to feel better than others. When we are first, we can glory in our efforts, skills, and achievements. Isn't that what really matters? After all, we are taught from a very young age to be proficient, stay on top, be the best at what we do, and win the praise and esteem of others. This is the stuff that makes us successful and provides us with a comfortable, satisfying life.

Jesus wants none of it. All of the details we anguish over mean little to the kingdom of God. You want to be first? Then, be a servant and welcome a child. All of this is the opposite of our often vehement pursuits. If we are serious about following Jesus and living the Gospel, then we must put the needs of others before our own. If we continue to listen only to the noise of the world, we are going to continue to believe the illusions we inherit. Those illusions come in many forms, but all have things in common: me before you, being on top and not the bottom, us versus them, personal security over universal harmony and peace. When are we going to learn that always striving to be the best and first is an empty pursuit in our struggle for happiness? While satisfying our ego with this momentary boost of esteem may feel good for a moment, is it what we really desire?

If we can break from the world's noise and create a space of sacred silence in our lives, we can begin to listen and see that we are being called in another direction. What we really desire is not the bolstering of our egos but the innocence we lost somewhere along the way. When we can be playful, joyful, and even somewhat carefree, life is good. We want our relationships to work, a place to call home, and to live peaceful lives with our sisters and brothers. Only a servant can do this. The servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern in order to be used by God. Rather than worrying about being first and coming out on top, we can be inspired, guided, empowered, and led to do good works. Stop worrying about being first and put greater energy into feeling joy.

Rediscovering Greatest Gift

The Eucharist is the "source and summit of the Christian life," in the words of "The Catechism of the Catholic Church."

To increase local Catholics' understanding of and affection for the Blessed Sacrament, the Diocese of San Diego is launching a seven-week Eucharistic renewal program that will be presented at every parish.

"It is my deepest hope that these weeks will be for us all a time to grow in our love for and understanding of this most beautiful sacrament and, in doing so, come closer to the God who has bestowed upon us every blessing we know in this world," Bishop Robert McElroy said.

The first phase of the renewal program has begun and will continue through September 26.

The next two consecutive weekends, the videotaped homilies will be presented at every parish on the following themes:

- ♦ "The Eucharist is the sacrificial memorial of Christ's Passion, Death and Resurrection by which we have been redeemed" (Sept. 19), and
- ♦ "The Eucharist is the sacred meal that nurtures us, bonds us together and sends us forth to transform the world" (Sept. 26).

These homilies will be available in English, Spanish and Vietnamese. In addition to being shown at Masses, the parishes will be sharing them through electronic communication and social media to reach parishioners who still haven't returned to Mass even after the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass was lifted in July.

"Even for those who've always been coming to Mass," said Bishop Robert McElroy, "the more people understand about the grace, and the depth, and the richness of this self-donation of Christ in the Eucharist, the deeper the relationship between the people and God will be."

Notice from the Diocese

Complaints about sexual abuse by a member of the clergy or by a parish or Catholic school employee or volunteer can be made by calling Mary Acosta at the Child and Youth Protection Office, Victims Assistance Coordinator, at 858.490.8353.
