Patronize Our Advertisers We wish to thank the many neighborhood merchants who are generously supporting our bulletin with their advertising. Please patronize these businesses whose faith in this medium of advertising make The Messenger possible. If you have a business and desire to reach fellow parishioners with your message, please call 800-950-9952 or visit the LPi website at www.4lpi.com for more information.

Spiritual Rosary Books The Scriptural Rosary book is the modern version of the way the rosary was once prayed throughout Western Europe in the late Middle Ages. This book is for everyone as it helps one to keep thinking about the Mysteries of each decade of the Rosary, while reciting the rosary. The books are available in the office during normal business hours; M-F, 9 am-2 pm for $15.00 each.

Don't Forget If any of your personal information has changed please call the Parish Office at 619-445-2145 to let us know. We strive to keep our family records up-to-date and confidential.

WHAT WE BELIEVE: THE BEAUTY OF THE CATHOLIC FAITH

Tuesday evening Bible Study will resume on September 6, 2022 from 6pm-8pm. This is a 10 week study.

What is the Catholic Church all about? What does it mean to be Catholic?
What do Catholics actually believe?

The Catholic Church is extraordinary. Founded by Christ himself, the Catholic Church is where we encounter God in his Word, his sacraments, and his saints. The Church faithfully proclaims the fullness of faith, leaving no truth out. It proclaims the fullness of life, leaving no person out. It calls all to repent and to believe in God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, the source of all life and salvation.

Maybe you've been Catholic your entire life. Maybe you're just beginning to explore the Catholic Faith. Wherever you may be in your journey, you will be profoundly moved by the beauty and the richness of the Catholic Church.

To sign up and purchase the study set visit ascensionpress.com/collections/what-we-believe-the-beauty-of-the-catholic-faith

Study set is $29.95 plus shipping.

Friends,

This past Friday the Church celebrated the feast of Saint Mary Magdalene, one of the most famous, or rather, infamous, saints in history. She is also probably the best known woman saint in all of Scripture other than the Blessed Mother, and from what I have seen, one of the most beloved saints that we have. Mary Magdalene moreover seems to be someone that both Catholics and Protestants feel that they can relate to because of her journey. While some of the stories about her may be apocryphal, what is certain about her is that Jesus delivered her from being possessed by seven demons. That leads to the very reasonable inference that she had an extremely colorful past, checkered with who-knows-what sins and failures. And yet... and yet Jesus saved her. And not only did he save her, his love for her so completely transformed her that she is one of the few people who managed to stay with Jesus all the way to the end on Good Friday, because her love for him was greater than her fear of the Romans. True, transformative love, which is the same kind of love that God wants to pour into our hearts and lives, always has this effect: it conquers and casts out every fear. It was this same love for her Lord that caused Mary Magdalene to go to the tomb on Easter Sunday, and then to stay at the empty tomb's entrance after Peter and John left to rejoin the other disciples. And it was her incredible love for Jesus which is why he chose her among all of his disciples to be the first to see him again and to proclaim the mystery of the resurrection.

And in case you haven't guessed yet, yes, Mary Magdalene is one of my favorite saints too, and a big part of that is the powerful lesson that her life and faithfulness to Christ teaches us: that the love of God will always triumph, whether he is saving us from something too big and terrible for us to handle, consoling us from the Cross, or embracing us in moments of joy. God's love will always be there, it will always conquer, and it will cast out every fear. If he did that for Mary Magdalene, he can do it for us too.

In Communion with All the Saints,

Fr. David

GOSPEL

Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray just as John taught his disciples." He said to them, "When you pray, say:

Father, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come.
Give us each day our daily bread
and forgive us our sins
for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us, and do not subject us to the final test."

And he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend to whom he goes at midnight and says, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, for a friend of mine has arrived at my house from a journey and I have nothing to offer him,' and he says in reply from within, 'Do not bother me; the door has already been locked and my children and I are already in bed. I cannot get up to give you anything.' I tell you, if he does not get up to give him the loaves because of their friendship, he will get up to give him whatever he needs because of his persistence.

"And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.

For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened. What father among you would hand his son a snake when he asks for a fish? Or hand him a scorpion when he asks for an egg? If you then, who are wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"
