Welcome to QUEEN OF ANGELS!

Welcome to all members and visitors who are joining us for the celebration of the Eucharist.

If you have been away from the Church for a little while or for quite some time, but now feel a tug at your heart calling you back to the Catholic Church, welcome home!

If you feel drawn to the Catholic Church yet come from another faith tradition - or have no faith experience at all - we are glad you are here! The Catholic Church has been teaching truth since she was founded by Christ over 2,000 years ago. We invite you to enrich your life through joining our parish family. In addition to our liturgies there are many ministries and service groups that help you to build friendships and serve our parish along with the greater community. We also offer lifelong learning through our many faith formation opportunities for children and adults.

For baptized Catholics needing to complete their Sacraments of Initiation please contact our Father David at (619) 445-2145. For those interested in joining the Catholic Church, please contact Pamela Stanley in the office at (619) 445-2145.

PASTOR'S PAGE

Friends,

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi, the Body of Christ. While the feast proper “only” dates back to the 13th century (after a slew of Eucharistic miracles), the belief that Jesus is truly and completely present – Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity – in every fragment of every consecrated Host and every drop of the Precious Blood in the chalice, goes back to the very beginning of Christianity. Extra-biblical historical sources reveal that the primary crime that Christians in the early centuries were put to death for was often, “impiety against the gods,” which, while certainly having to do with their rejection of the notion that Caesar was divine and their refusal to participate in pagan sacrifice, goes beyond that. In fact, some of the specific accusations against the very first Christians talk about them drowning babies and practicing cannibalism. These two false accusations are almost certainly a pagan misinterpretation of the Christian sacraments of Baptism (including, it would seem, infant baptism) and the Eucharist. It is easy to imagine a pagan misunderstanding the Church’s teaching on Christ being truly present in the Eucharist and, since the celebration of these rites were purposely kept secret because of widespread persecution, how it could easily lead anyone who heard about the Christian practice of eating and drinking the Body and Blood of the Lord to incorrectly conclude that they were practicing cannibalism. And if I’m being honest, when I was a young boy, that’s how it sounded to me too, at first.

But obviously cannibalism is not what the Church has ever taught or believed. From the very beginning, the followers of Jesus understood His words at the Last Supper – “this is my body... this is my blood” – to be efficacious and true. Because Jesus is alive and divine we know that He can and will keep His word. Since He is God, His words have power. When God speaks, the universe has to obey, and when Jesus says, “this is my body,” it is. We believe in the true Presence, not because it’s a clever idea (would you have ever dreamed that up?), but because Jesus, the Second Divine Person in the Holy Trinity, said so. We also recall that as He ascended into heaven, Jesus promised to be with us until the end of the age (cf. Mt 28:20), and He does that in many ways... but I would submit that perhaps the most beautiful and intimate of those ways is in the Eucharist, where He is truly present to us, not merely spiritually, but physically. The Eucharist is many things: a sacrament, spiritual food and medicine, a sacrifice of thanksgiving, a demonstrable proof that God always keeps His promises to us... but it is so much more than anything we could ever imagine. Because as today’s feast reminds us, the Eucharist is the Son of God Himself, present to us in all of His glory, and all of His love for us.

In Faith,

Fr. David

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Sacred Vessels

Have you ever paid attention to the purification of the sacred vessels after Holy Communion? If you haven't, I highly recommend doing so this Sunday. See the care with which the priest handles the chalice and the paten, pouring water into them to cleanse any loose particles of the Body and Blood of Christ. Observe the loving reverence he uses in wiping them dry with a special purificator. It's a ritual unto itself, and a powerful moment for reflection.

These vessels begin as earthly objects. They are made by human hands. There is nothing special about them — not until they go about the work for which they have been created. Until they contain the Body and Blood of Christ, they are only ordinary objects. But after they have carried within them the Eucharist, they are never the same. They will always be special and deserving of special care.

That's why partaking of the Eucharist is, for us, an evangelical undertaking. It is both a transformation and a declaration. When we accept this tremendous gift, we are proclaiming what we believe, and we are accepting the grace to follow through on that commitment.

When we are receiving the Eucharist, it is not possible for us to be passive. We become the vessel. We carry Christ into the world with us.

But do we act like it? Do we treat ourselves — our bodies, our souls — with the same respect as the priest cleansing the chalice? Do we treat one another with the reverence we would reserve for a sacred object? When we look at another person with anger or irritation or envy, do we acknowledge the change that we have willingly undergone by receiving Christ's Body and Blood into ourselves?

Summer Biblical Brainteaser

There are names of sixteen books of the Bible mentioned in the paragraph below. See how many you can find:

I once made a remark about the hidden books of the Bible. It was a lulu; kept people looking so hard for facts... and for others it was a revelation. Some were in a jam, especially since the names of the books were not capitalized. But the truth finally struck home to numbers of our readers. To others it was a real job. We want it to be a most fascinating few moments for you. Yes, there will be some really easy ones to spot. Others may require judges to help them. I will quickly admit it usually takes a minister to find one of them, and there will be loud lamentations when it is found. A little lady says she brews a cup of tea so she can concentrate better. See how well you can compete. Rest assured, for there really are sixteen names of books of the Bible in this paragraph.

(Answers will be in next week's bulletin)
