World Mission Sunday October 23, is World Mission Sunday. We celebrate this day by remembering our baptismal call to bring the Gospel to all! Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support mission dioceses in Uganda, Philippines, and in remote regions of Latin America where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. The special collection at the Masses this weekend, October 22-23, will be for The Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Please be as generous as you can for this worthwhile cause.

All Souls' Novena If you wish to include your deceased loved ones in the All Souls' Day Novena, there are envelopes at the entrance to the church. Please write the names of your loved ones on the envelope and drop it in the collection basket or bring it to the office. Deadline to return your envelope is October 28. The novena will start on Tuesday, November 1.

Commemoration of All Souls' Month Tuesday, November 1, is All Saints Day. We will continue to observe this day by displaying our deceased loved ones' photos in the church for remembrance during the month of November. However because of space constraints, we can only display those photos of deceased loved ones that have passed away in 2021-2022. If you have a photo of a loved one you wish to have displayed in the church, please make a copy no larger than "4 x 6" and bring it to the parish office no later than Friday, October 28. For further information, please contact the parish office at 619.445.2145.

Queen of Angels will have two Masses on November 1st, at 8 AM and 6 PM. November 2nd, All Souls' Day, is not a Holy Day of Obligation, but it is observed, so daily Mass will take place at the usual time.

Tues: Mass: 8 AM, 6 PM

Friends,

I was recently reminded of the quote from G. K. Chesterton (found in What's Wrong with the World), where he writes, "The Christian ideal has not been tried and found wanting. It has been found difficult; and left untried."

This is a beautiful if also convicting thing to ponder, for how often do we simply give up on trying to live the Gospel of Jesus? Think of some of the more challenging things that Jesus calls us to do. "Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you" (Mt 5:44). "[You] must deny yourself, take up your cross daily, and follow me. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it" (Lk 9:23-24). "If the world hates you, know that it hated me before it hated you" (Jn 15:18). "Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you as well. Do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself." (Mt 6:33-34a). "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father in heaven" (Mt 7:21). "If you would be perfect, go, sell your possessions, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me" (Mt 19:21). "Whatever you did to the least of these my brothers, you did it to me" (Mt 25:40). Or one of my favorites: "A new commandment I give you, love one another; even as I have loved you, so you also should love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another" (Jn 13:34-35). And that's just scratching the surface! The Gospels are replete with moments where Jesus challenges us to live a far greater and holier life than most of us imagine we are capable of doing, and certainly beyond what we would ordinarily choose for ourselves.

So here's a spiritual gut check (or challenge, if you prefer) for us today: what teachings of Christ found in Sacred Scripture do I struggle with? What are the areas of my life where I imagine that I know better than the Christ and His Church? Are there areas in my life where I purposely circumvent or ignore Church teaching? Where do I need to try to live out "the Christian ideal," as Chesterton called it, no matter how difficult it is? How is Jesus calling me to live out the radical nature of the Gospel in a profound and mysterious way? And – here's the big one – am I willing to follow Jesus into that space, wherever it is, trusting that he wouldn't call me there if it wasn't for my good and if he didn't also plan to help me once I'm there?

The Gospel has always been challenging, both to those who are threatened by it (we're looking at you, Caesars of Rome and world leaders throughout history), but also to us who are called to live it as we strive to follow after our Master, Teacher, Savior, and Friend. The challenge, as always, is to persevere, but although it is difficult, it is not impossible, and it is always worth it in the end. As we hear Paul say in our second reading today in his letter to Timothy, "I have fought the good fight; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith" (2 Tim 4:7). Let it not be said of us that we found the Gospel difficult and simply gave up trying to live it. Don't be afraid! Just follow him.

Striving for the Ideal,

Fr. David

Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We give thanks to God for the recent overturning of Roe v. Wade by the Supreme Court, but the situation in California for the unborn has become even worse since then, as leftist pro-aborts have leaned into trying to make California an "abortion sanctuary" for other states. In some ways things are even more dire than before, so we are looking forward to our 40 Days for Life campaign, which runs from September 28-November 6.

Along with our neighboring parishes, we will be manning the sidewalk outside the Planned Parenthood in El Cajon on Tuesdays. There are plenty of Tuesdays still available so don't hesitate to sign up. A sign-up sheet can be found by the main entrance of the church.

Please keep our state, our leaders, and especially the unborn and their mothers in prayer!

Please contact Patricia at hansenpat@msn.com or 619-445-3822 to sign up or for more information.
