ANNOUNCEMENTS

Faith Formation What a beautiful day it was for our first day of Faith Formation last Sunday. As a reminder, please make sure your children arrive to class prepared and on time. Thank You!

Adult Faith Formation/RCIA RCIA, the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, will take place after the Sunday 10:30 AM Mass in the parish hall. If you are interested in learning more about, or joining the Catholic Church, or if you are an adult who has not received all of your sacraments, we look forward to seeing you there. For more information contact Father David at 619-445-2145 in the parish office.

Knights of Columbus Attention fellow Knights: Our monthly Council meeting will be held on Tuesday, August 9, at 7:00 PM in the parish hall. All Knights are encouraged to attend.

Spiritual Rosary Books The Scriptural Rosary book is the modern version of the way the rosary was once prayed throughout Western Europe in the late Middle Ages. This book is for everyone as it helps one to keep thinking about the Mysteries of each decade of the Rosary, while reciting the rosary. The books are available in the office during normal business hours; M-F, 9 am-2 pm for $15.00 each.

Coffee & Donuts Did you know all parishioners are invited to coffee, juice and donuts sponsored by our very own Knights of Columbus after all Sunday Masses in the Church multipurpose room? Why not consider treating yourself and your family to some delectable and satisfying morning treats. Suggested donation is $1 per item. This is also a perfect time to meet fellow parishioners and promote fellowship outside of the Mass setting. So, will I see you on Sunday?

Please Remember Upon leaving Mass, please make sure all Missalettes, Hymnals and Prayer Cards, are put back neatly in the pew backs. It only takes a few seconds and greatly enhances the appearance of the church when arriving to celebrate Mass. Thank You~

Craft Fair & Bake Sale The Our Lady of Grace Parish Catholic Women's Club will hold its Annual Holiday Craft Fair and Bake Sale on Saturday, November 5, from 9 AM to 3 PM at the Parish Center and Patio Area, 2766 Navajo Road, El Cajon 92020. Admission is free and there will be over 70 crafters featuring fashion apparel, home decor and artwork for the upcoming holidays. Freshly baked items, fudge, peanut brittle, cakes, cookies, etc. will be available. Lunch will also be available. For more information, call 619-980-6841.

Do You Feel the Calling?

If so, why not consider start serving Queen of Angels. We are always in need of Altar Servers, Communion Ministers, Lectors and Ushers. Please help! We will work with your availability to serve at the Mass which you now attend. Please contact Jacob in the parish office at 619.445.2145 if you feel the call.

Holy Hearts Homeschool Co-Op

Thank you for your continued prayers and generous support! Holy Hearts has had a fantastic start this new school year.

If you would like to support our school in one small way the teachers would greatly appreciate food treats for the Teacher's Lounge.

Food treats can be dropped off in the parish hall on Fridays before 9AM or at the parish office during normal business hours. Treats will be stored in the hall refrigerator until class on Friday. (Please label all treats Holy Hearts).

RESPECT LIFE MONTH

Dearest St. Joseph,
at the word of an angel,
you lovingly took Mary into your home.
As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son
in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland
for the safety of both Mother and Child.

We praise God that as their faithful protector,
you never hesitated to sacrifice
for those entrusted to you.
May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard
God's most precious gift of life.

Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life —especially where it is vulnerable or threatened.
Obtain for us the grace
to do the will of God in all things.
Amen.

St. Joseph, defender of life,
pray for us!

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Expressing gratitude is a sign of a loving heart. When we have received a gracious gesture, the appreciation experienced forms a bond between the giver and receiver. This can only happen when abundance and kind gestures are seen as gifts and not something to which we are entitled. The power of gratitude is more profound when we realize all that we are and all we are given do not have a human source but are of God. Walking around believing that our glass is only half full leaves us always wanting more. We are never satisfied. We become nothing more than entitled pursuers of whatever we can get. Instead, the one who is eager to count their blessings and appreciate the wonder and beauty of the gift of life itself is at peace. Before they take another step or venture off on another journey, they bow in gratitude to the presence of God himself. They are most keenly aware that all would cease to be without God.

Until my last breath,
I will give thanks to the Lord.
Amen.

He was absolutely Ruth-less!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We give thanks to God for the recent overturning of Roe v. Wade by the Supreme Court, but the situation in California for the unborn has become even worse since then, as leftist pro-aborts have leaned into trying to make California an "abortion sanctuary" for other states. In some ways things are even more dire than before, so we are looking forward to our 40 Days for Life campaign, which runs from September 28-November 6.

Along with our neighboring parishes, we will be manning the sidewalk outside the Planned Parenthood in El Cajon on Tuesdays.

Please see the sign-up sheet by the main entrance of the church if you are interested in getting involved, and keep our state, our leaders, and especially the unborn and their mothers in prayer!

Please contact Patricia at hansenpat@msn.com or 619-445-3822 to sign up or for more information.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint John XIII was born Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli on November 25, 1881, in a small village in Italy. He was ordained in 1904 and later earned a doctorate in canon law. During World War I he served as a stretcher-bearer and chaplain for the Italian army. Beginning in 1925 he served as a Vatican diplomat, first in Bulgaria, then in Greece and Turkey. From 1935 through the Second World War he helped save thousands of Jewish people. In 1944 he was named papal nuncio to France. He was named cardinal and appointed patriarch of Venice in 1953. A quiet pastoral life passing into retirement, however, was not in God's plan for the saint.

Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli was elected Pope in 1958 and took the name John. His papacy was short, but full of action. He transformed the Vatican, calling for openness, a spirit of ecumenism, and the setting aside of politics. He called the Second Vatican Council in the fall of 1962, the first meeting of its kind in almost a century, setting the agenda to work for the spiritual regeneration of the Church. His efforts changed the face of the Catholic Church. At the same time worked diligently and publicly to ease tensions during the Cuban missile crisis, pleading with leaders for the end of the Cold War.

Saint John XXIII's kindness, sense of pastoral care, and works of reconciliation and peacemaking made him beloved not only to Catholics but to people around the world. He died on June 3, 1963. He was beatified in 2000 by St. John Paul II, and canonized by Pope Francis in 2014.
