If you can assist with any of these positions please contact the parish office at 619.445.2145. We will work with your availability to serve at the Mass which you now attend.

FAITH FORMATION

Faith Formation is in need of loving adults who'd like to teach and share our Catholic Faith with the youth and children of the parish. Please consider volunteering as a catechist, even if you don't have children old or young enough to participate in Queen of Angels' Faith Formation programs.

ASK YOURSELF:

is God calling ME to be a Catechist?

- Your commitment as a Catechist means:

- ◊ We will train and support you in the use of the materials we provide that form the basis of each class
- ◊ You spend some time looking at the material for the next lesson so you know what you are teaching
- ◊ You are present for each catechetical session, usually 22-23 days per year from September through early-May
- ◊ You are willing to let God use you to both teach, and to learn, about our Catholic faith with a small group

For more information or to volunteer contact Father David at 619-445-2145.

Lectio: Philippians: Life in Christ

Toward the end of his life, under arrest and awaiting trial in Rome, Saint Paul writes a short but powerful letter to the Philippians. Paul's affection for the Christian community at Philippi is apparent from his opening words. The Philippians were not only Paul's sons and daughters in the Faith but also his partners in sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

With his words and the example of his life, Paul exhorts the Philippians to have the mind of Christ, to live a life worthy of the Gospel, and, by God's grace, to gain Christ.

Tuesday, December 10, 2024

Everyday Stewardship

My wife has a hope chest filled with items from her past. Some memories contained in there are joyous, while others are painful and filled with sorrow. However, all those memories helped to make her the person she is today. They have become a part of her very being.

Traditionally, a hope chest contained linens and clothing for a woman's wedding day. It was a chest filled with the hope for the future. As time goes by, many of our hopes are fulfilled. However, life never goes exactly as planned. Some hopes are dashed by unfortunate circumstances or bad choices we have made.

Our hearts are like hope chests that long for the day when we are joined for eternity with our God. Along the way, our chest may accumulate additional items that we collect on our life's journey. If we are gracious and generous along the way, our chest will fill with fruit to abundance. If we live more with a focus on ourselves, we will find our hope chests nearly barren. We will, in fact, lose hope. May the hope chest of your heart be overflowing with love that you have freely given and that has come back to you tenfold. May your generosity provide hope for the hopeless, and may your hope always remain strong.

Want to grow deeper in your knowledge of Sacred Scripture from some of the world's best theologians?

Follow along and watch the video with Dr. Bergsma - a convert who was led to the Church through the Scriptures-gives us seven Bible verses that prove that Catholicism is indeed biblical and even more biblically grounded than what some of our Protestant brethren initially think.

In each of these seven verses, Dr. Bergsma breaks it down by giving us the context of the passage, providing us with original translations, sharing with us his own personal testimony, and much more!

Some of the topics these verses cover are:

- ◇ the meaning of "the church"
- ◇ - tradition vs. teaching - Sola Scripture & the interpretation of the Scripture
- ◇ - the Sacraments - Mary - relics

MARY MAGDALENE

A Saint for Our Times

St. Mary Magdalene is a woman surrounded by mystery and misunderstanding, and yet she is revered to this day as one of Jesus' most ardent followers.

A six-part digital course, presented by Clement Harrold and offered by the St. Paul Center introduces you to this remarkably relevant saint, decoding what Scripture and Tradition say about this enigmatic figure.

You'll discover:

- * Why Mary Magdalene is more relevant today than ever.
- * Why the authors of the Gospels were hesitant to explicitly reveal her identity.
- * How she serves as a model of Eucharistic devotion.
- * The stark contrast between Mary Magdalene and Judas Iscariot.
- * Why her identity remains enigmatic to this day.

A popular object of pious devotion in the Middle Ages, Mary Magdalene's dramatic conversion from hardened sinner to devout disciple will inspire you on your path to holiness.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

August 25, 2024
21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

The famous Russian novelist Fyodor Dostoyevsky said, "Love in action is a harsh and dreadful thing." In the Gospel reading this week, Jesus does something harsh and dreadful — he watches his own disciples abandon him. What could possibly be loving about that?

Well, we notice the context is Jesus' teaching about eating and drinking his body and blood. His followers hear this and say, "This teaching is difficult; who can accept it?" (John 6:60). We shouldn't imagine we'd do anything different, because not even the ones who stay, like Peter, seem to understand what Jesus is saying. Then we hear this devastating line, "Because of this many of his disciples turned back and no longer went about with him" (John 6:66). Besides the night of the Last Supper, only now do Jesus' disciples abandon him. And, painfully, Jesus just lets them go.

The best way to make sense out of this is love. Jesus is God's love in action. He wants to become one with those whom He loves. He wants to love them as His own body. Yes, the oneness manifested in the Eucharist sounds harsh and dreadful because it is rooted in love which is willing to risk abandonment and separation to attain its goal: to be one body with the beloved. It is both terrifying and wonderful that Jesus will risk losing us in order to be one with us. Our response? Lord, we cannot grasp a love so great, but please help us never to abandon it, either.

— Father John Muir

Take the first step today and Walk With One!

Sometimes all it takes for someone who is not in relationship with the Lord—either because they've never encountered him or have fallen away—to begin a journey to him is to know that they are seen, heard, and loved. And that's something you can provide for them—no special training or degree required!

By virtue of your baptismal calling, YOU have a role to play in God's plan to bring people you know and love into relationship with Christ. That's what the third year of the National Eucharistic Revival—the Year of Mission—is all about! You are invited to be an instrument of God this year through a special form of one-on-one accompaniment called Walk With One.

Not sure how to begin?

Start by visiting the Walk With One resource page at <https://www.eucharisticrevival.org/walk-with-one>

There, you'll find a step-by-step guide on how to accompany someone on their spiritual journey as well as a Eucharistic Examen to help you pray for this person (and grow closer to God yourself) as you walk with them.

When you step out in faith, you give God permission to work through you to make an eternal difference in someone's life. And we're here to pray for you and support you every step of the way! Be sure to sign up for additional resources on how to engage in one-on-one discipleship.

Welcome to this journey. Get ready for God to do amazing things in and through you!
