Our Annual Catholic Appeal enables us to fund our Pastoral Center ministry offices and programs that help our community members to live their faith. They include schools and programs to support faith formation at all ages, to strengthen families, to promote a culture of life, to care for creation, to engage youth and young adults, to sustain our retired clergy and those preparing for the priesthood, and to extend a helping hand to the marginalized.

We ask you to prayerfully consider how the Lord is inviting you to give towards this year's appeal. Your continued generosity in support of our local Church is vital to the mission of the Universal Catholic Church.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Monthly ECPCC Collection Please leave your donations after all the Masses this weekend, August 3-4, in the "ECPCC COLLECTION CHEST" directly behind the church. You can access the chest any day of the week. Please remember to close the lid when you are finished, and PLEASE only leave maternity and baby clothing.

Mark your Calendar Thursday, August 15 is the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and IS a Holy Day of Obligation. Plan ahead so you can get to Mass at some point during the day. Mass will be celebrated at 8AM and 6PM to help accommodate this.

OCIA For any adults who are interested in learning more about, or joining, the Catholic Church, or for those who want to complete their sacraments, the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) will begin in September. Please check the parish webpage to complete the inquiry form, and please contact Fr. David if you have any questions.

"Spiritual Rosary" Books Queen of Angels has the "Spiritual Rosary" book available for purchase. This book is the modern version of the way the rosary was once prayed throughout Western Europe in the late Middle Ages. This book is for everyone as it helps one to keep thinking about the Mysteries of each decade of the Rosary, while reciting the rosary. The books are available in the office during normal business hours for $15.00. Limited supply, purchase yours now.

Lectio: Philippians: Life in Christ

Toward the end of his life, under arrest and awaiting trial in Rome, Saint Paul writes a short but powerful letter to the Philippians. Paul's affection for the Christian community at Philippi is apparent from his opening words. The Philippians were not only Paul's sons and daughters in the Faith but also his partners in sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

With his words and the example of his life, Paul exhorts the Philippians to have the mind of Christ, to live a life worthy of the Gospel, and, by God's grace, to gain Christ.

TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD™

There are times in our lives that we get the chance to see a glimpse of heaven. It may be through the love of another, loved one or stranger. Sometimes it may even be an event that seems unexplainable, perhaps even supernatural. These occurrences may be the answer to prayer or they may surprise us by coming out of nowhere. But no matter their nature or origin, they give us hope and strength to carry on through life.

When we journey on a pathway of stewardship, we are bound to experience moments of grace where we see even the smallest seeds we planted grow into something amazing. At these moments, we are reminded that God is real and that our stewardship is not in vain. The giving of our gifts and talents is not just a response to God's calling. The giving is one way that God breaks through into the lives of others. As we use what God has given us for his glory, he uses us as instruments of grace to be truly present to others.

The greatest example of this occurs at the Mass. Through the hands of an ordained priest taking the gifts of bread and wine, God is really present with us. When we then take Christ into our bodies, we accept the offer to take him into the world to others. The world cannot see Jesus in us with human eyes, but through our works of stewardship, they can see Jesus in us. One could say they even have a chance to see a glimpse of heaven.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

"If then my people, upon whom my name has been pronounced, humble themselves and pray, and seek my face and turn from their evil ways, I will hear them from heaven and pardon their sins and heal their land." (2 Chr 7:14)

The 10th National Eucharistic Congress held July 17-21 at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis was a profound moment for the whole Church in the United States as our Catholic family united in prayer. United in spirit with our brothers and sisters across the nation, we worshiped Jesus as the Body of Christ and sought repentance in joy and hope. 60,000 Catholics gathered for this generational event, and countless more across the nation joined us via livestream.

Two of those 60,000 attendees were fellow parishioners, Ron & Enriqueta Luquin who had the great honor and privilege to join in this life changing event. "This was a Catholic experience unlike any other I've ever attended", "we will never be the same", and "AWESOME!!!" were just some of Ron and Queta's responses when asked about the event.

We as faithful Catholics continue to gather in our prayers and fasting, we will ask the Holy Spirit to strengthen us with the virtue of fortitude so that we may preach Christ—our Lord and Savior, truly present in the Eucharist—for the Glory of God and the Salvation of Souls today and always.

Adoration at the beginning of the conference
"You could hear a pin drop!!"
