Summer Stewardship

This is the time of year when many families are on vacation. A good way to teach children about the importance of Mass attendance is to build it even on vacation. It can be fun and interesting to seek out and attend Mass in another town. At the same time, it is important to remember that the stewardship way of living the Christian life is to decide in advance how much of our treasure we share with our own parish community.

Even though many families are away for some portion of the summer, our bills do not stop. For this reason, I hope that you will remember to use your envelopes in support of our parish even when you are on vacation. One of the advantages of our envelope system is the convenience of being able to return them by mail.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

June 16, 2024
11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

My mother and father fell in love with each other rather quickly. It was only a span of two months between their first meeting and quiet betrothal. They waited for a significant period of time before going public with the happy news. It simply wasn't time. Love's strength and speed can sprout scandal in public. Until the big reveal, they gave the outside world only little hints, gestures, and riddles.

Something like this — but even more wonderful — is at play when Mark says of Jesus, "he did not speak to them without a parable, but to his disciples in private he explained everything." Jesus is the long-awaited messiah-king, but his identity as the Lord and Son of God is so new, surprising, and scandalous to human ears that the big reveal would have to wait. Thus, his parables are riddles, meant to conceal more than reveal. Even the disciples — who hear things explained directly — barely grasp what he is up to. It's only at the cross that Jesus' love for Israel and the world is explicitly revealed. Until then, much stays hidden and comes in riddles.

So it goes with us, too. I wonder at times why doesn't the Lord just speak to us directly in prayer about what we should do, or how to fix our problems. Or why doesn't he reveal himself directly to powerful leaders who are slow to act? Why does he allow life so often to be confounding, contradictory, and crazy? Because it simply isn't time yet. One glorious day, it will be. Until then, he teaches us in riddles, and only sometimes explains them.

The Lord is Calling, Do You Feel the Call?

If so, why not consider to start serving here at Queen of Angels church. The Bible says God is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him (Hebrew 11: 6). Jesus also said those who seek first the Kingdom of God and its righteousness will be rewarded with the necessities of life.

We here at Queen of Angels are always in need of Altar Servers, Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors and Ushers. Please consider helping! We will work with your availability to serve at the Mass which you now attend. If you feel the call, and can assist with any of these positions please call the parish office at 619-445-2145.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dear Followers in Christ,

We share a faith and a mission.

Like you, we want to help others grow in faith, center their lives on the Eucharist, and be credible witnesses to a world in need.

Our Founder, Father Michael J. McGivney, knew the importance of empowering the laity to be involved in the mission and evangelization of the Church. For 140 years, we've been providing resources to men and women on the front lines in parishes around the world. We invite you to follow in their footsteps. Whether you're looking to strengthen your faith, help protect your family with our financial products and services, or serve your neighbors in need, the Knights of Columbus has the tools to help you point the world, and your family, to Christ.

Now on the path to sainthood, Blessed Michael McGivney's mission is more important than ever, and Knights of Columbus stands committed to supporting the laity in being missionary disciples. The following words from Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly are a call to all men to follow in the footsteps of our Founder:

"Will we be credible witnesses to a living faith? Will ours be a charity that evangelizes? Will we stand for the truth without apology and without counting the cost? Our answer is the same as Father McGivney's: Yes! We will point the world to Jesus Christ."

The Year of Mission is upon us. As we all prepare to be sent out to evangelize our families and communities, we invite you to learn more about how Knights of Columbus can support you and those you will walk with on the journey to Christ and His Church.

Yours in faith,

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Father's Day Blessing

Single fathers usually sit in the back row of their children's school performances. Fathers who are married usually sit as close to the front of the audiences, with their spouses. Why is this?

Well, we all know how important mothers are to the well-being of a family. However, we as a culture look at single fathers with a bit of suspicion. Fathers are as important as mothers are, but offer a different perspective on life and bring a much needed role in bringing up children. Let us welcome all fathers today to the front row of our lives and acknowledge how important they have been, and continue to be in our lives.

Let us pray...

*Gracious God and Father, our first father,
You are the One who has brought us to life in this world you created.
You created us and everything around us.
We turned away from you and only after disappointing you did we return your love.*

*Look with favor on our earthly fathers.
They helped create us in your image.
We have disappointed them,
but have come to realize just how important they are to us.*

*Bless all our fathers, living and deceased, with comfort and health.
We bring all their needs to you and ask for strength so they may live worthy lives.*

*We ask all this in the name of your Son,
our model of what it means to reverence our fathers.
In Christ's name.
Amen.*
