GOSPEL MEDITATION

May 26, 2024
The Most Holy Trinity

Once I was at a meeting with representatives of various religions. On a coffee break, a man from another religion mused to me: "You know, with all our differences, all religions are really about being good people." I lowered my cappuccino and said as warmly as I could, "That's not what mine's about." His quizzical look begged for clarification. "Mine is about plunging into the life of God," I said.

Just before Jesus ascends into heaven, he commands the eleven apostles, "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." (Matthew 28:19-20). The word "baptize" means "to immerse in, to plunge into." It presupposes the use of water. But what does it mean to be immersed in God's name? In the Bible, God's name is identical to God Himself. So, to be baptized into water, using Jesus' formula, is to be plunged into the life of God. Said another way, it is to die with Jesus and rise with him as a member of his body.

The Trinity isn't a doctrine simply to accept and ponder. It's more like an ocean: a mystery into which we are baptized ... inserted, immersed, dunked, plunged. Baptism gives us power to live our lives as beloved children of God, patterned after Jesus himself, who is always with us, until the end of the ages. Hardly the same as being good people. Stranger, but much better.

Prayer to the Holy Trinity

Glory be to the Father,

*Who by His almighty power and love created me,
making me in the image and likeness of God.*

Glory be to the Son,

*Who by His Precious Blood delivered me from hell,
and opened for me the gates of heaven.*

Glory be to the Holy Spirit,

*Who has sanctified me in the sacrament of Baptism,
and continues to sanctify me
by the graces I receive daily from His bounty.*

*Glory be to the Three adorable Persons of the Holy Trinity,
now and forever.*

Amen.

MISSION

When we read the Gospel, Jesus teaches us about the Father. What have you learned so far about the Holy Spirit? Using the concordance found at the back of your Bible, look up "Holy Spirit." As a family, write down the verses, find them in your Bible, and read them out loud. Talk about each verse. If you have any questions, write them down and ask your pastor or teacher for help.

Memorial Day 2024

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Papal Envoy to the National Eucharistic Congress

Since about the sixth century, the Catholic Church has celebrated “stational liturgies.” This is when the bishop of Rome or his envoy would travel on a certain day to a particular church, where representatives of the entire diocese would join him for a single Eucharistic sacrifice. This was an especially powerful manifestation of the unity of the Church.

At the 10th National Eucharistic Congress, we will continue this beautiful tradition!

Today, we are excited to announce the papal envoy who will join us in Indianapolis this July: Luis Cardinal Tagle. Born in 1957 in the Philippines and educated by Scheut Missionaries, Cardinal Tagle was appointed Archbishop of Manila by Pope Benedict XVI. Today, he helps coordinate the Church’s missionary efforts as the Pro-Prefect of the Section for the First Evangelization and New Particular Churches of the Dicastery for Evangelization.

Cardinal Tagle is recognized for his deeply pastoral and thoughtful approach to ministry. He emphasizes the importance of mercy and compassion in the Church’s mission, particularly in addressing the needs of the poor and promoting peace. He will celebrate the closing Mass at the Congress, where he will give us the apostolic blessing and send us into the Year of Mission.
