ANNOUNCEMENTS

Monthly ECPC Collection Please leave your donations after all the Masses next weekend, November 2-3, in the newly named "ECPC COLLECTION CHEST" directly behind the church. You can access the chest any day of the week. Please remember to close the lid when you are finished, and PLEASE only leave maternity and baby clothing.

Knights of Columbus Attention fellow Knights: Our monthly Council meeting will be held on Tuesday, November 12, at 7:00 PM in the parish hall. All Knights are encouraged to attend.

Please Take Note The parish office will be closed Monday, November 11, in observance of Veterans Day. We will reopen at 9:00 AM on Tuesday, November 12.

Thank You To all who participated in any way in the Fall Campaign for 40 Days for Life! All the prayers, sidewalk prayer vigils, adorations and fasting are working to bring about a Culture of Life. Hearts and minds are changing and you have played a part, God bless you abundantly!

PLEASE Consider Assisting! We here at Queen of Angels are always in need of Altar Servers, Communion Ministers, Lectors, Ushers and Choir Members. These volunteer positions are a vital and integral part of celebrating Mass and are not only necessary but rewarding as well. If you would like to assist with any of these positions please contact Father David in the parish office at 619-445-2145. We will work with your availability to serve at the Mass which you now attend. Note: We can use volunteers for all Masses so if you can assist just only once a month it would be greatly appreciated.

Spiritual Rosary Books The Scriptural Rosary book is the modern version of the way the rosary was once prayed throughout Western Europe in the late Middle Ages. This book is for everyone as it helps one to keep thinking about the Mysteries of each decade of the Rosary, while reciting the rosary. The books are available in the office during normal business hours. Books are $15.00 each.

Holy Hearts Homeschool Ministry

Do you remember the days of buying Script?

Holy Heart's Homeschool will be offering parishioners the opportunity to once again purchase Script. Purchasing Script comes at no extra cost so why not considering buying some. Script is a great way to buy Christmas gifts or even holiday groceries while also helping our homeschool ministry.

For a list of vendors visit raiserright.com. There are over 600 to choose from so the chances are great some of your favorites are on the list.

Script may be purchased after all Masses the weekend of November 9-10 and will be available for pick up after all Masses the weekend of November 23-24; right in time for any last-minute Thanksgiving shopping.

Thank you for supporting Holy Hearts Homeschool Ministry.

PASTOR 'S PAGE

Friends,

On my recent canonical retreat I took some time to read from a collection of old letters I received from extended family that included letters that had originally been written to my grandfather when he spent a few years attending seminary and discerning the priesthood. Obviously the Lord had very different plans for him, for which I am personally very grateful, but it was, to use a somewhat old-fashioned term (but what did you expect after reading those letters?), delightful to read family correspondence from 1946-47. It was amusing to see a '46 newspaper clipping from the funny pages with a comic of – wait for it – Donald Duck. I also had to laugh when I stumbled across a tract that spoke of the “recent” apparitions in Fatima. While most of the letters were from his mother (my great-grandmother), others came from siblings and friends. His little sister, for example, was fond of using stationery that had cute cartoon ducks on it, and she playfully signed off “Love, guess who” on one occasion. I also found it familiar and weirdly comforting to read a letter from a good friend of his where he trash-talks about their rival college and the upcoming game against said hated rival. There were a few copies of the monthly publication the seminary put out, also from '46-'47, and those really made me smile, as it was good to see that seminarians have barely changed at all in the past 80 years. It was, in the best sort of way, nostalgic.

All of which made me reflect on the beauty of the Church, her colorful and vibrant history, the Apostolic Tradition she has received and continues to pass down through the ages, and the Sacred Scriptures – love letters from her Divine Bridegroom – that she holds close to her heart. Friends, it is good for us to remember that the Tradition we have received came from real people who knew Jesus personally and talked to him face to face. It is good for us to remember that the letters we read and hear from the New Testament (NT) every Sunday were real letters written by real people to real people. In the same way I had to piece together the full conversation between my grandfather and great-grandmother while only having one half of the conversation, sometimes it can be a little tricky figuring out precisely what Saint Paul (it's usually Saint Paul) is so passionate about this time, but we can still hang on to every word of Scripture because – and this is important – every word was written with love. The NT epistles, and indeed, the Bible in its entirety, is no less family correspondence than the letters my great-grandmother and great-aunt wrote; they just usually contain fewer newspaper clippings and don't have ducks on the stationary. And the words and stories from the Gospels are even more important, because again, they are words that Jesus really spoke to us, actions that he really did for us. The Gospels tell us real stories about real people who really encountered the living God in the person of Jesus Christ! This is beyond remarkable.

Brothers and sisters, please always remember that our faith is rooted in reality, and not just any reality, but the reality of a person – the Person: Jesus of Nazareth, the Word who became flesh. It was a reality that was lived, experienced, and shared by people like you and me, people who then did their best to communicate to everyone they met what it was like when they encountered God. This is the Tradition and faith we have received, and while your letters and mine will never be included in the canon of Sacred Scripture, we still have a responsibility to pass on what we have received, which is nothing less than the divine and eternal love of God Himself.

Grace and peace to you all,

Fr. David

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Embracing Our Apostolic Roots

Jesus in the Eucharist is the answer to every restless longing of the human heart. If we truly believe this, then that living faith will compel us to share this joy with our brothers and sisters! That's what the third year of the Revival—the Year of Mission—is all about.

This is an exciting new season of the Revival movement. The Holy Spirit has enkindled a missionary fire in the heart of our nation, and now he is sending out every member of the Church to spread the Good News—sharing the gift of our Eucharistic Lord with those on the margins. And YOU are invited to be a part of it!

If you feel called to live this mission in a way that's unique to you and your strengths, we have created a Year of Mission Playbook just for you! Use this comprehensive guide to discern and embark on your Eucharistic mission. Download the guide at <https://cdn.prod.website-files.com>, and read on to learn more about how you can become a Eucharistic Missionary.

The Four Pillars of Mission

Pillar 1-Eucharistic Encounter

In order to lead people to a relationship with Jesus in the Eucharist, we have to maintain an active relationship with him ourselves. This pillar focuses on deepening that personal relationship through prayer, adoration, and the sacraments. Regular, profound encounters with Jesus strengthen us to be a more authentic and powerful witness to his love.

Pillar 2-Eucharistic Identity

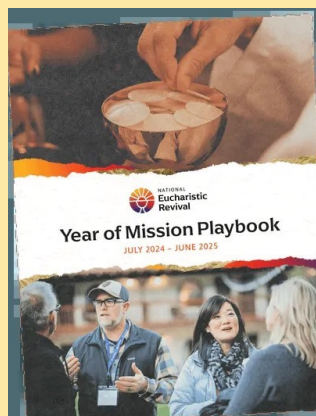

To truly live out our mission as Catholics, we must first embrace our identity as beloved children of the Father, shaped by our relationship with Christ in the Eucharist. This pillar emphasizes the importance of internalizing and living out the teachings and love of Jesus, allowing our Eucharistic encounters to define who we are. Through these encounters, our hearts and minds are transformed, guiding us to reflect Christ's love in every aspect of our lives.

Pillar 3-Eucharistic Life

This pillar encourages us to integrate our love for Christ into every aspect of our lives, transforming daily actions into continuous acts of worship and service. As we love Christ more, our lives become configured to his, reflecting his sacrificial love. When we live a Eucharistic life, we join in Christ's self-offering, allowing his love to flow through us to others.

Pillar 4-Eucharistic Mission

This pillar is a call to evangelize—boldly spreading the Good News of Christ's Eucharistic love and mercy in word and deed. As our love for Christ deepens, our lives will become increasingly configured to his mission, compelling us to serve others with his heart. We will be drawn to compassionate service, living our call to be his hands and feet to our neighbors and bring his presence to the margins.
