ANNOUNCEMENTS

Eucharistic Adoration Join us in the month of October on Tuesdays after the 8:00 AM Mass for a special Eucharistic Adoration to pray to end abortion.

Friendly Reminder: In observance of Columbus Day, the parish office will be closed on Monday, October 14. It will re-open at 9:00 AM on Tuesday, October 15.

Annual Catholic Appeal As our donation deadline is approaching, don't forget about the Annual Catholic Appeal. Please check the bulletin for more information on where we currently stand on our parish goal. Thank you for your ongoing generosity towards the work of Christ in our diocese and our parish. Your continued generosity in support of our local Church is vital to the mission of the Universal Catholic Church. If you cannot donate at this time, we ask you to pray for a successful conclusion for our parish in this year's Annual Catholic Appeal.

Baptism We congratulate the newest member of our parish. Kiana Imoto daughter of Tadasu Imoto & Genesis Tani, who was baptized on October 6, 2024. We lovingly welcome her into our Queen of Angels Faith Community!

COME & PRAY WITH US!

Thank you to all who have signed up to participate in the largest pro-life movement in the world!

Every Tuesday in October Queen of Angels will be praying from 7 AM-7 PM in the public right-of-way outside Planned Parenthood at 1685 E Main St., El Cajon (near Greenfield and East Main Street next to McDonalds)

NEW this year, Queen of Angels will have Eucharistic Adoration every Tuesday after the 8 AM Mass to pray to end abortion.

If you are unable to take part in our peaceful prayerful vigils on the sidewalk, please consider signing up for an hour of dedicated prayer of Eucharistic Adoration to help defeat the evils of abortion.

Sign-up sheets for Eucharistic Adoration and Sidewalk Prayers can be found at the entrance of the Church.

JOIN IN OUR LATEST BIBLE STUDY

Luke: The Story of Salvation Fulfilled

The Gospel of Luke takes you on a journey that begins with the foretelling of John the Baptist's birth and culminates in Jesus' ascension into heaven. On the road to Emmaus, a story unique to the Gospel of Luke, Jesus gave us the greatest Bible study of all time, laying out his fulfillment of the Old Testament.

In Luke: The Story of Salvation Fulfilled, you will witness key moments in salvation history including the Annunciation, the Nativity, his public ministry, and Jesus' suffering, death, and glorious Resurrection. There are parables found only in Luke, including the Prodigal Son, the Good Samaritan, and the rich man and Lazarus which will show you the mercy and compassion that Jesus has for each one of his children.

In this 8-part study, Jeff Cavins and Dr. Jeffrey Morrow will show you the beautiful Biblical roots for Mary, the Rosary, and the Mass that are found in Luke, strengthening your prayer life like never before.

Friends,

I will keep my own words short today, as the primary purpose of this is to keep everyone abreast of the parish's financial situation as of the conclusion of last fiscal year. I believe it is essential for us as a parish to be as transparent as possible about the church's finances, and how the money that you give is being used. On that note, if you spot anything in last year's report that bothers you or that you have questions about, please don't hesitate to bring it up with me. Again, transparency is the word of the day. Thank you for your continued generosity to God's ongoing work in our parish family and the Church as a whole! I leave you today with the words of Saint Paul (2 Corinthians 9:6-12).

"The point is this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must do as he has made up his mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that you may always have enough of everything and may provide in abundance for every good work. As it is written, 'He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor; his righteousness endures forever.' He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your resources and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way for great generosity, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God; for the rendering of this service not only supplies the wants of the saints but also overflows in many thanksgivings to God."

Thank you for giving thanks to God through your generosity. Grace and peace to you, now and always.

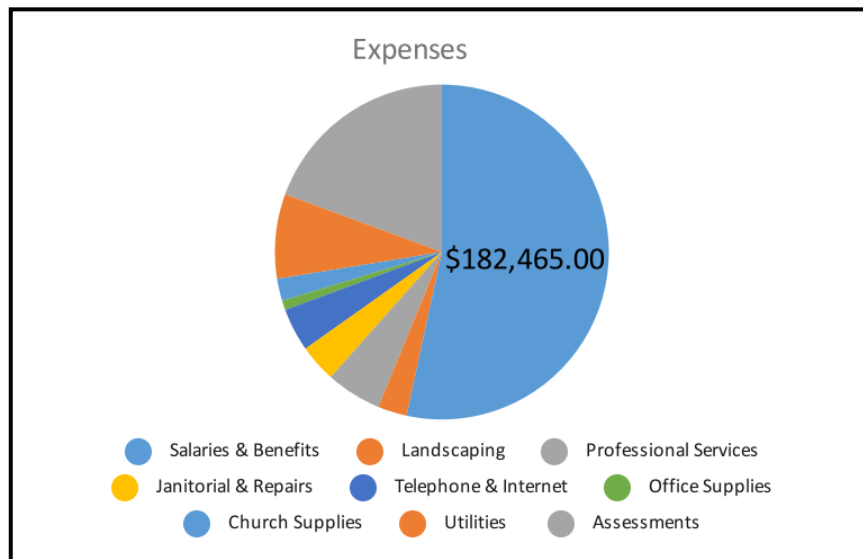

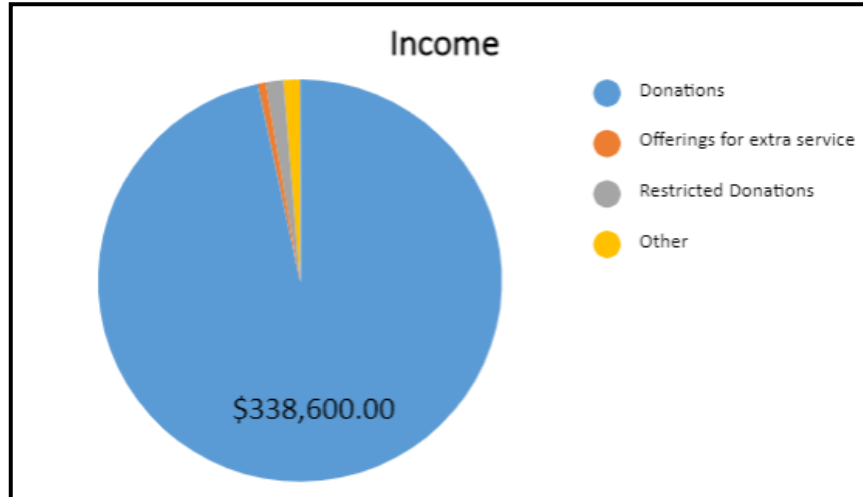

With thanksgiving,

Fr. David

28th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dear Friends,

This week we remember my two favorite saints: St. Francis of Assisi and St. Thérèse of Lisieux. They are undoubtedly among the most popular saints in Church history—Thérèse for her littleness and Francis for his love for the least among us. While these are important aspects of their lives, what draws me most to Francis and Thérèse is how they lived utterly Eucharistic lives.

For example, in response to the waning Eucharistic devotion and lax practice among many of the clergy of his time, St. Francis wrote a letter to all priests exhorting them to faithfully celebrate the Mass and cultivate authentic Eucharistic devotion.

St. Thérèse's "Christmas miracle," which healed her of her crippling sensitivity and self-preoccupation, occurred soon after she had received her Eucharistic Jesus during midnight Mass with her family.

Both of their lives were shaped and molded by an ever-deepening intimacy with Jesus in the Eucharist. Thérèse offered herself as a sacrifice of praise behind the walls of the Carmelite Cloister in Lisieux, France in the late 1800s. Francis preached the Gospel and served the poor in the cities of the Umbrian Valley at the dawn of the 13th century, where men and women lived like many do in our day and age: as if God didn't exist.

I am deeply indebted to Francis, who teaches me every day how to see Jesus in the Eucharist so that I may see him in the poor. Thérèse, my dear "big sister," helps me cultivate a contemplative heart in union with Jesus, our Eucharistic Love.

St. Francis and St. Thérèse, pray for us, so that, like you, we may live faithful and fruitful Eucharistic lives!

In Jesus,

Sister Alicia Torres, F.E.

BREAKING THE BREAD: YEAR C

By Scott Hahn & Ken Ogorek

For millennia, our ancestors in the faith have gained a deeper sense of their place in God’s saving plan by paying careful attention to the Scripture readings proclaimed at Mass.

In Breaking the Bread—a beautiful companion series for the Sunday Mass readings—beloved Scripture scholar Scott Hahn and catechist Ken Ogorek team up to continue this tradition for today’s three-year lectionary cycle.

Available just in time for the new liturgical year, Breaking the Bread: Year C will help you unpack the deeper sense of the Sunday Mass readings you’ll hear proclaimed throughout the 2024/2025 Year C cycle of readings.

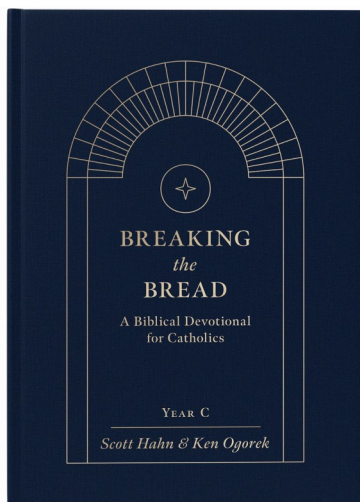

This biblical and catechetical devotional provides:

- An overview and analysis of all the Sunday Mass readings in Year C
- Reflections on, and references to, relevant portions of the Catechism of the Catholic Church
- Stunning, full-color sacred artwork to enhance contemplation
- Suggested points for deeper reflection

And more. . .

Discover your place in God’s saving plan and experience Sunday Mass on deeper levels with Breaking the Bread: Year C.
