Our Annual Catholic Appeal enables us to fund our Pastoral Center ministry offices and programs that help our community members to live their faith. They include schools and programs to support faith formation at all ages, to strengthen families, to promote a culture of life, to care for creation, to engage youth and young adults, to sustain our retired clergy and those preparing for the priesthood, and to extend a helping hand to the marginalized.

We ask you to prayerfully consider how the Lord is inviting you to give towards this year's appeal. Your continued generosity in support of our local Church is vital to the mission of the Universal Catholic Church.

"Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift you have received."

4 PM-7 PM (more info to follow)

September 21: Exaltation of the Cross,
Blessing of Catechist & Ministers

Please note that the 75th Anniversary envelopes by the church entrances are for if you would like to donate to this specifically. Please also stay posted for further updates and information on these parish celebrations.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Andrew Tompkins Memorial College Scholarship Award

to practicing Catholics and members of Queen of Angels Parish. Applicants must be a senior in a Catholic, Public, Charter or accredited Home High School or a full-time student at an accredited College or Trade School.

Applications are available online at queenofangels.org.

Applications must be completed and

POSTMARKED NO LATER THAN JULY 31, 2025.

We at Queen of Angels are always in need of more
Altar Servers, Communion Ministers, Lectors, Ushers & Choir Members.

These volunteer positions are a vital and integral part of celebrating Mass and are not only necessary but rewarding as well.

If you can assist with any of these positions please contact the parish office at 619.445.2145.

We will work with your availability to serve at the Mass which you now attend.

Queen of Angels will continue to support our Holy Father Pope Leo in his annual worldwide collection that supports the charitable and evangelical works of the Church throughout the world in the Peter's Pence collection until July 31. Please pray and ask the Lord how He is calling you to give towards His Kingdom and His work, and please use the envelopes in the pews and by the entrances for this special collection.

What We Must Do

We are to love God and our neighbor with all the strength of our being, as the scholar of the Law answers Jesus in this week's Gospel.

This command is nothing remote or mysterious—it's already written in our hearts, in the book of Sacred Scripture. "You have only to carry it out," Moses says in this week's First Reading.

Jesus tells His interrogator the same thing: "Do this and you will live." The scholar, however, wants to know where he can draw the line. That's the motive behind his question, "Who is my neighbor?"

In his compassion, the Samaritan in Jesus' parable reveals the boundless mercy of God, Who came down to us when we were fallen in sin, close to dead, unable to pick ourselves up.

Jesus is "the image of the invisible God," this week's Epistle tells us. In Him, the love of God has come very near to us. By the "blood of His Cross"—by bearing His neighbors' sufferings in His own body, being Himself stripped and beaten and left for dead—He saved us from the bonds of sin and reconciled us to God and to one another.

Like the Samaritan, He pays the price for us, heals the wounds of sin, pours out on us the oil and wine of the sacraments, and entrusts us to the care of His Church until He comes back for us.

Because His love has known no limits, ours cannot either. We are to love as we have been loved, to do for others what He has done for us, joining all things together in His Body, the Church.

We are to love like the singer of this week's Psalm—like those whose prayers have been answered, like those whose lives have been saved, who have known the time of His favor, have seen God in His great mercy turn toward us.

This is the love that leads to eternal life, the love Jesus commands today of the scholar and of each of us: "Go and do likewise."

For children entering Kindergarten through 8th Grade

To Register Your Child, Please Visit

the Queen of Angels website at queenofangels.org and click on “TRUE NORTH”

Space is limited. (Payment guarantees placement).

(The TRUE NORTH Program focuses on helping kids discover their true direction through faith in Jesus.)

Hello Dear Families!

I hope you all are enjoying this beautiful summer and spending some great family time together. Vacation Bible School is just around the corner and we are looking forward to a fun and faith-filled week! For any families still wanting to register, the deadline will be Sunday, July 13th.

We have a great group of middle school junior leaders, but are still in need of a few high school and adult volunteers. Aside from being a fun time and great opportunity to build community and leadership skills, VBS is also a great way for the high school students to earn service hours. Adults and teens are needed to help lead small groups and lead a few of the activity stations. All materials are provided, all that is needed is a willingness to serve and a heart for the kiddos you will be working with.

We will have a training session on the Saturday, July 26th from 9 AM -11 AM in the Parish Hall to go over the specifics. If you are available, please consider giving of your time to help serve in this special way!

Thank you, Rebecca
