One Sunday for the Whole World—World Mission Sunday
October 19, 2025

This year's theme, chosen by Pope Leo, is inspired by the Jubilee of Hope: "Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples." It is an invitation to bring Christ's light and hope to the world, especially to communities where the Church is young, growing, and often struggling. Join us in this universal mission to spread the Gospel and share the love of Christ!

The Host of the Banquet: Pope Leo!

Instituted in 1926 by Pope Pius XI as a mandatory, global second collection, the banquet that is World Mission Sunday has since then been hosted by the Pope, and the table set by those who answer Christ's call to "Go and make disciples of all nations" (Mt 28:19), extending an inclusive invitation to all corners of the Earth.

Meant to be held in every parish in the world, the proceeds benefit 1,150 territories where the Gospel has not yet been received, has been only recently embraced, or is courageously upheld in the face of persecution.

On World Mission Sunday, we join our Holy Father in supporting his missions. As we pray and respond here at home, we share in those celebrations taking place in every parish and school throughout the world. Together, through our prayers and financial support, we bring the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions.

Pier Giorgio Frassati: From the Ordinary to the Extraordinary By Paul Jarzembowski

The Catholic Church recently recognize an incredible young person in the communion of saints. On Sunday, September 7, 2025, Pope Leo XIV canonizes Italian laymen, Pier Giorgio Frassati (who lived to young adulthood in the early twentieth century)

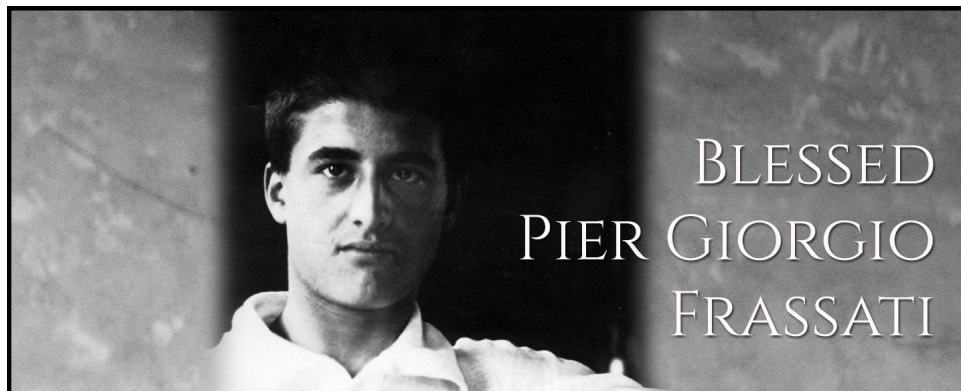

Many of those who accompany youth and young adults are only somewhat familiar with Frassati since he has been a patron for several World Youth Days over the past decades. However, most of the Church is just now learning about Pier Giorgio as an incredible model of Christian holiness. It is an honor to share more of his story.

Pier Giorgio was born and raised in Turin, the northern Italian city that is also the home of St. John Bosco, another patron for young people. Frassati's religious faith developed throughout his childhood and youth. As a young adult, he got involved with lay communities like Catholic Action, the Apostleship of Prayer, the St. Vincent de Paul Society, and the Young Christian Worker movement, and also became a professed member of the Third Order of Saint Dominic.

Model of Deep Faith and Abundant Charity

In our age, when we are overwhelmed by so much, Pier Giorgio can serve as a model for achieving holy balance. He was able to spend time on joyful outings with friends, while also attending to his religious commitments, his family obligations, and most especially his charitable service to poor and marginalized individuals within his local community (which he often carried out secretly). His gentle nature and generous kindness to society's most vulnerable members were complemented by a fierce advocacy against the rise of individualism and fascism in Italy during his lifetime.

Pier Giorgio was a strong athlete and skilled mountaineer. On mountain treks, he would spend time contemplating the mysteries of God and the beauty of creation. As such, his motto was "to the heights!" (verso l'alto!) He would spend hours at Mass and in the quiet of Eucharistic adoration, but just as long in the company of the less fortunate. This is one of the axioms he often shared with others: "Jesus comes to me every morning in Communion, and I return the visit by going to serve the poor."

Birth: April 6, 1901

Location: Turin, Italy

Death: July 4, 1925

Beatification: May 20, 1990

Feast Day: July 4th

Patron of: students, Catholic youth, mountain climbers, skiers, Dominican tertiaries

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 19, 2025

Luke 18:1-8

A woman in my parish has an adult son who has rejected his faith. She prays for him every day. She lights candles, says rosaries, and asks God again and again to bring him back. But nothing changes. Is God listening? Is He delaying? She told me once that she feels like the widow in Jesus' strange parable — crying out for justice, but hearing only silence. And yet, she said, she is at peace. I asked why. She responded, "God is always answering. I just can't see it yet."

She embodies something of the mystery in Jesus' parable this week in Luke 18. A powerless widow demands justice from a corrupt judge. This isn't about wearing God down until He gives in. It's about faith in the justice that is already coming. The widow isn't just persistent; she believes that justice is inevitable. And when Jesus points to the judge's words — his fear of being "struck" — He hints at something deeper: God's justice does not creep in gradually. It strikes. It comes like lightning.

Blessed Mary is, of course, the ultimate widow demanding justice. At the foot of the cross she stands before what looks like the ultimate injustice — the brutal execution of her son. But she did not despair. She did not beg for a last-minute rescue. She knew that justice was not delayed. In fact, it was happening. The power of the cross was already unleashing justice upon the world — suddenly, decisively, like a blow that would topple every corrupt power, making even the most corrupt fear her strike.

This parable asks us: will the Son of Man find faith on earth? Or will we mistake God's silence for absence? The cross proves that justice is not slow. It is only hidden. The lightning has already struck. In the cross, justice is speedily being done.
