First Saturday to Honor the Immaculate Heart of Mary

9:00am—Mass

Gov. Nuisance Newsom has signed AB-24, the deadly bill that will require the distribution of the abortion pill on State University campuses.

We need to help others be informed on this issue. The 2020 Democratic Party nominees for President ALL support killing babies through ALL nine months of pregnancy!

In California, our tax monies are going to support the killing of innocent boys and girls. Gov. Newsom just gave another 10 million more dollars to Planned Parenthood in addition to the 100 million he gave to PP in May! We cannot be complicit in evil by supporting candidates that enact abortion legislation.

"...The Word of The LORD came to me saying, "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you..." Jer 1:4-5

"The LORD is a God of justice, Who knows no favorites."

Sirach 35:1

We all have some prejudices and preconceived notions about people. We tend to measure everyone we meet with the scales of our understanding of things. St. Thomas A. said that each person judges as he is such (or so disposed), meaning that the glutton never thinks someone eats too much, the drunkard that no one drinks too much, etc. We must, however, come to judge things upon facts, not emotions or personal prejudices. When Our Lord told us not to judge, this meant of course that we should not judge rashly, that is, without the full knowledge of the facts [Jn 7:22]. In the gospel, Our Lord presents His disciples with a new way of looking at people, that is, from God's perspective. He uses two opposite extremes in the spectrum of people's imaginations in His day to show us that we should try to look to the interior, rather than to the exterior. To not judge a book by its cover.

The Pharisees In order to understand the Gospel we should know something about the two extremes presented. We know what a tax collector is, what a priest is, a scribe, but what about the Pharisee? After the exile in Babylonia (587 B.C.), Israel's kingship form of government had become a thing of the past; in its place the Jews created a community which was half State, half Church. Later, in the third century B.C. the newly introduced Greek lifestyle (Hellenism) of Alexander The Great (356–323 B.C.) threatened Judaism with destruction. We find this recorded in Sacred Scripture in the Book of Maccabees. The more zealous among the Jews drew apart calling themselves Chasidim or "pious ones", i.e., they dedicated themselves to the realization of the ideas inculcated by Ezra the Prophet, holy priest, and doctor of the law. In the violent conditions incidental to the Maccabean wars these "pious men", sometimes called the Jewish Puritans, became a distinct class: they became the Pharisees.

Pharisee means "the separated", they were those men who separated themselves from the pagans, and from the heathenizing forces and tendencies, which constantly invaded the lands of Judaism (I Mach. 1:11; II Mach. 4:14ff; cf. Josephus Antiq., XII, v, 1). During these persecutions by the Greeks, the Pharisees became the most rigid defenders of the Jewish religion and traditions. In this cause many suffered martyrdom (I Mach. 1:41ff), and so devoted were they to the prescriptions of the Law that on one occasion when attacked by the Syrians on the Sabbath they refused to defend themselves (I Mach., 2:42; ibid. 5:3ff.). They considered it an abomination to even eat at the same table with the pagans or have any social relations with them whatsoever!

At the time of Jesus the Romans had taken control of Judea and had ruled for over 90 years (since the Roman Pompey 63 B.C. entered Jerusalem). The Pharisees influence over the people became great and far-reaching, and in the course of time they, instead of the priests, became the sources of authority. In fact, at the time of Our Lord such was their power and prestige that they sat and taught in the "chair of Moses" [Mt 23:2], as Jesus Himself states. This prestige naturally engendered arrogance and conceit, and led to a perversion in many respects of the conservative ideals of which they had been such staunch supporters.

The Tax Collectors were seen as diametrically opposed to the Pharisees. Tax Collectors were in collusion with the pagan Romans and hence were viewed as traitors, someone who actually helped the pagans to lord-it-over God's People. We can thus imagine what people thought when Jesus fraternized with the tax collectors. In fact, Jesus even chose a tax collector, St. Matthew, as an Apostle! No wonder the Apostles never got along, Matthew a tax collector on one end of the spectrum and Simon a rebel zealot party member on the other.

What we see in the Gospel [Lk 18:9-14] then is the polarity of these two opposite extremes: on the one hand, the Pharisee who was appointed by Jewish society as the high and exalted one; and on the other hand, the tax collector who was held as the 'scum of the earth' to the Jew. What Our Lord shows us is that sometimes those held as high and exalted by society are really the rejects in God's eyes. While those who are seen as nothing to society are in fact the justified 'friends of God' destined for eternal glory. As it is said in another part of the Gospel [Mt 19:30, 20:16] "...the last will be first, and the first will be last."

This should be a lesson for us all. When the world ends – and it will end, and all the glory of it – all people will be gathered for The General Judgment of every person ever conceived. This is depicted in the famous mural of the Sistine Chapel. As the Catholic Catechism teaches us:

"Jesus announced the judgment of The Last Day in His preaching. Then will the conduct of each one and the secrets of hearts be brought to light. Then will the culpable unbelief that counted the offer of God's grace as nothing be condemned. Our attitude about our neighbor will disclose acceptance or refusal of grace and divine love. On the last day Jesus will say: "Truly I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to Me." CCC 678

When Christ Our Lord walked this earth what was “politically correct” in His day turned out to be “divinely incorrect”. God’s judgment is not man’s judgment [I Sam 16:7]. What society judges to be good for us is not always so. The social norm is not the moral norm! We should therefore resolve not to be judged by the pressure of society, especially our current society, which Pope Saint John Paul II called “the culture of death”.

Yes, ours is “the culture of death”. As it continues to turn away from true justice, equality, morality, and all decency, and even our natural vocation as human beings to be more than mere animals (to not kill our own in the womb), our secular society leads astray many people who no longer have God as their guide. Our Lord made it clear that we must live in the world “but not be of the world” [Jn 15:19, 17:6, 15]. The Pharisees of today are those who claim to have a moral superiority. They have separated themselves from the traditional morality of Christian Faith, which they now term ‘intolerant’. Because of this, they think themselves better, and more enlightened than the Neanderthals not in step with today’s society life. They claim to have “tolerance” for all cultures and peoples, yet they immediately label those who disagree with them as ‘intolerant’, ‘racist’, ‘homophobes’, ‘genderphobes’, ‘Islamophobes’, ‘against choice’, ‘gun-toting bible fundamentalists’, ‘religious fanatics’, or just simply as ‘The Deplorables’. The Pharisees of today are those politically correct people who have a complete disdain for anything of traditional morality, especially of the Christian influence. They control the multimedia, the schools and colleges, the politics, most everything.

So today, we have to realize that the faithful Christian is as the tax collector in the Gospel. For the tide has turned, and that now white is new black; right the new wrong; morality the new immorality; etc. and our whole society has been turned upside-down and no one knows where it will end. ‘Can I be as Christ and accept what is rejected by societies wisdom?’ Can I be seen as the tax collector, appearing as St. Paul did, to be a “fool for Christ” [I Cor 4:10]. And if we can, then we may not be accepted by our society, but we will go home justified in the eyes of God.

Autumn Blessings,

Father Tim
