GOSPEL MEDITATION

15th Sunday in Ordinary Times

Matthew 13:1-23

Sometimes I feel capable of absorbing almost anything except God's Word. My mind soaks up song lyrics, sports trivia, and endless online content. But what was the reading at Mass this morning? I struggle to recall. That realization discourages me, and it leads to an uncomfortable question. What is my heart really for? Is it shaped for constant information and distraction, or is it truly designed for God? Am I capable of deeply receiving His Word?

Jesus speaks directly to this today with a simple image. "The seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it." By comparing the Word of the Kingdom to a seed, Jesus reveals something hopeful about us. The human heart is made for that seed. Soil and seed belong together. No matter how compacted, rocky, or overgrown the ground has become, the Sower never stops sowing.

God loves our hearts. He sees them as a farmer sees his fields, full of potential. Human hearts can indeed "understand the Word." Understanding does not mean mastering information. It means letting the Word sink in, interacting with it, and giving it a home. It means trusting that, beneath the surface, God is at work in quiet and hidden ways.

When we allow the Holy Spirit to loosen the soil of our hearts through prayer, repentance, and simplicity, the same Word that created the universe begins to bear fruit in us, 30, 60, even a hundredfold.

Lord Jesus, Sower of life, soften the soil of my heart. Let Your Word take root in me again and bring forth the fruit You desire. Amen.

— Father John Muir

UPCOMING BIBLE STUDY

A Biblical Walk Through THE MASS

Begins Tuesday, July 14, 2026 in the parish hall from 9:00 AM–11:00 AM

This is a five-session study that explores the biblical roots of the Liturgy and reveals what the Mass means and why it matters.

In the Liturgy of the Word, we hear God speak through Scripture, and in the Liturgy of the Eucharist, we encounter Christ himself. This study unpacks the meaning behind the words and rituals of the Mass, showing how the Liturgy is rooted in Scripture. The updated edition also includes footage of a Mass at the Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul in Philadelphia.

By studying its scriptural foundation and rich meaning, you will gain a deeper understanding of the Mass and grow in love for the Holy Eucharist.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

For respect for human life

Lord of life,

You created us in love and called us to live in fullness. Each person is a sacred gift that reflects your face, from the first instant of existence to the final breath of their journey on earth. Today we ask for the grace to recognize and protect the unique and unrepeatable value of every human being. May we learn to welcome life unconditionally, to tenderly care for fragility, to accompany each stage with respect, and to bravely defend those who have no voice. Forgive us, Lord, when we fall into indifference or the culture of discard, when we fail to see in others a being worthy of love. Give us a new heart, always ready to choose life, and generous hands that protect it through concrete actions. Make your Church a living witness of the Gospel of life, an open home where every life is celebrated, where no one feels unwanted, and where dignity is always honored and protected. Lord Jesus, may we love life as You love it: with tenderness, fidelity, and self-giving. May we proclaim, in words and actions, that every human life is worth the total gift of ourselves.

Amen.
