Our Annual Catholic Appeal enables us to fund our Pastoral Center ministry offices and programs that help our community members to live their faith. They include schools and programs to support faith formation at all ages, to strengthen families, to promote a culture of life, to care for creation, to engage youth and young adults, to sustain our retired clergy and those preparing for the priesthood, and to extend a helping hand to the marginalized.

We ask you to prayerfully consider how the Lord is inviting you to give towards this year's appeal. Your continued generosity in support of our local Church is vital to the mission of the Universal Catholic Church.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Monthly ECPCC Collection Please leave your donations after all the Masses this weekend, October 31-November 1, in the "ECPCC COLLECTION CHEST" directly behind the church. You can access the chest any day of the week. Please remember to close the lid when you are finished, and PLEASE only leave maternity and baby clothing.

All Souls' Novena If you wish to include your deceased loved ones in the All Souls' Day Novena, there are envelopes at the entrances to the church. Please drop the envelope in the collection basket or bring it to the office. Deadline to return your envelope is Sunday, November 1. The novena will start on Monday, November 2.

OCIA For any adults who are interested in learning more about, or joining, the Catholic Church, or for those who want to complete their sacraments, the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) will meet on Sunday, November 1 at 11:45 PM in the St. Lawrence/Donut room. Please check the parish webpage to complete the inquiry form, and please contact Father David if you have any questions.

All Souls' Day Mass Please join us for a special Mass commemorating All Souls' Day on Monday, November 2 at 8:00 AM following the reciting of the Rosary at 7:30 AM. Please consider taking the time to remember the faithful departed.

Spiritual Rosary The Spiritual Rosary book is the modern version of the way the rosary was once prayed throughout Western Europe in the late Middle Ages. This book is for everyone as it helps one to keep thinking about the Mysteries of each decade of the Rosary, while reciting the rosary. Books are available in the parish office for $15 each during normal business hours.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Friends,

Grace and peace to you all! Saint Paul reminds us that, “whoever gives sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously” (2 Cor 9:6). To that end I would like to take some time this weekend to thank you for your immense generosity over the past fiscal year and to include a summary of our parish’s fiscal report for the past year. It is my intention to be a good steward of—and to be transparent about—our parish’s finances. Thank you for your continued prayers, generosity, and support of Christ’s mission here at Queen of Angels. May God bless you abundantly!

Grace and peace,

Fr. David

ANNOUNCEMENTS

All Saints Day

I heard a story the other day of a very holy man. The commentator said, "We shouldn't call him a saint. If we sanctify him, we don't have to imitate him." This is precisely the opposite of the meaning of saints! Throughout the Church's history, we have honored saints, but not to set them apart. We honor saints to remind us what is possible for a person who loves God. The saints have stories as varied as our own. We have bishops, martyrs, teachers, doctors, former thieves and prostitutes, politicians and kings, soldiers and pacifists, single mothers, desert hermits ? the list goes on! On this Solemnity of All Saints, we remember this garden of holiness, rich with diverse flowerings of a holy life. When you look at the life of your favorite saint, ask yourself, "How can I imitate this person? What is possible for me when I love God?"

Devotions, Explained! Prayer for the Dead

God is not subject to the constrictions of time as we understand them. Our prayers for the dead are, like our prayers for the living, an expression of charity and the unity which exists between all members of the Body of Christ.

Prayer for the Dead, Explained!

It may seem strange to pray for someone who is already dead and who, according to our earthly reckoning of time, has already undergone judgment. But God is not subject to the constrictions of time as we understand them. Our prayers for the dead are, like our prayers for the living, an expression of charity and the unity that exists between all members of the Body of Christ.

Prayer for the dead is a practice which not only predates Catholicism but predates Jesus Christ, as we see in the Second Book of Maccabees (2 Maccabees 12:42-45).

"By virtue of the 'communion of saints,' the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers, especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf," says the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 1055).

The most common Catholic prayer for the dead is as follows: "Eternal rest grant unto them, o Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace."
